Dear Truck Writers Staff:

The Blaine Police Department is in receipt of your $500 donation check given in memory of all the men and women who lost their lives on September 11, 2001 in the line of duty.

I will forward the money to the Blaine Public Safety Association and it will be used in support of their community based crime prevention and public safety efforts here in the City of Blaine and within the community. Thank you for your generous donation. We very much appreciate your support through the years.

Sincerely,

Christopher Olson
Safety Services Manager/Chief of Police

Re: Donation

Our company again would like to make our annual donation to the Blaine Police Department, in memory of all those good men and women who lost their lives on September 11th in the line of duty.

Please let your department know that we appreciate the hard work that they do for us in insuring our safety and honor them on this historical date.
