Hi Lori,

As for how the auto sales will work. There will be no storing of vehicles or vehicles for sale on the property at 108th Lane NE. I purchase vehicle's from the Manhiem Auto Auction or purchase customers vehicles that they do not want to repair. Me and my family use these vehicle's as our daily drivers while they are advertised online. The only time we would be using the property located at 108th Lane NE for the dealership would be to perform repairs, meet potential buyers for showings and to use the office for all books and records needed to conduct business for the dealership. I attached a aerial photo of the property I thought that would be better than me trying to draw a picture freehand (I'm by no means an artist) if you need more photo's please let me know.

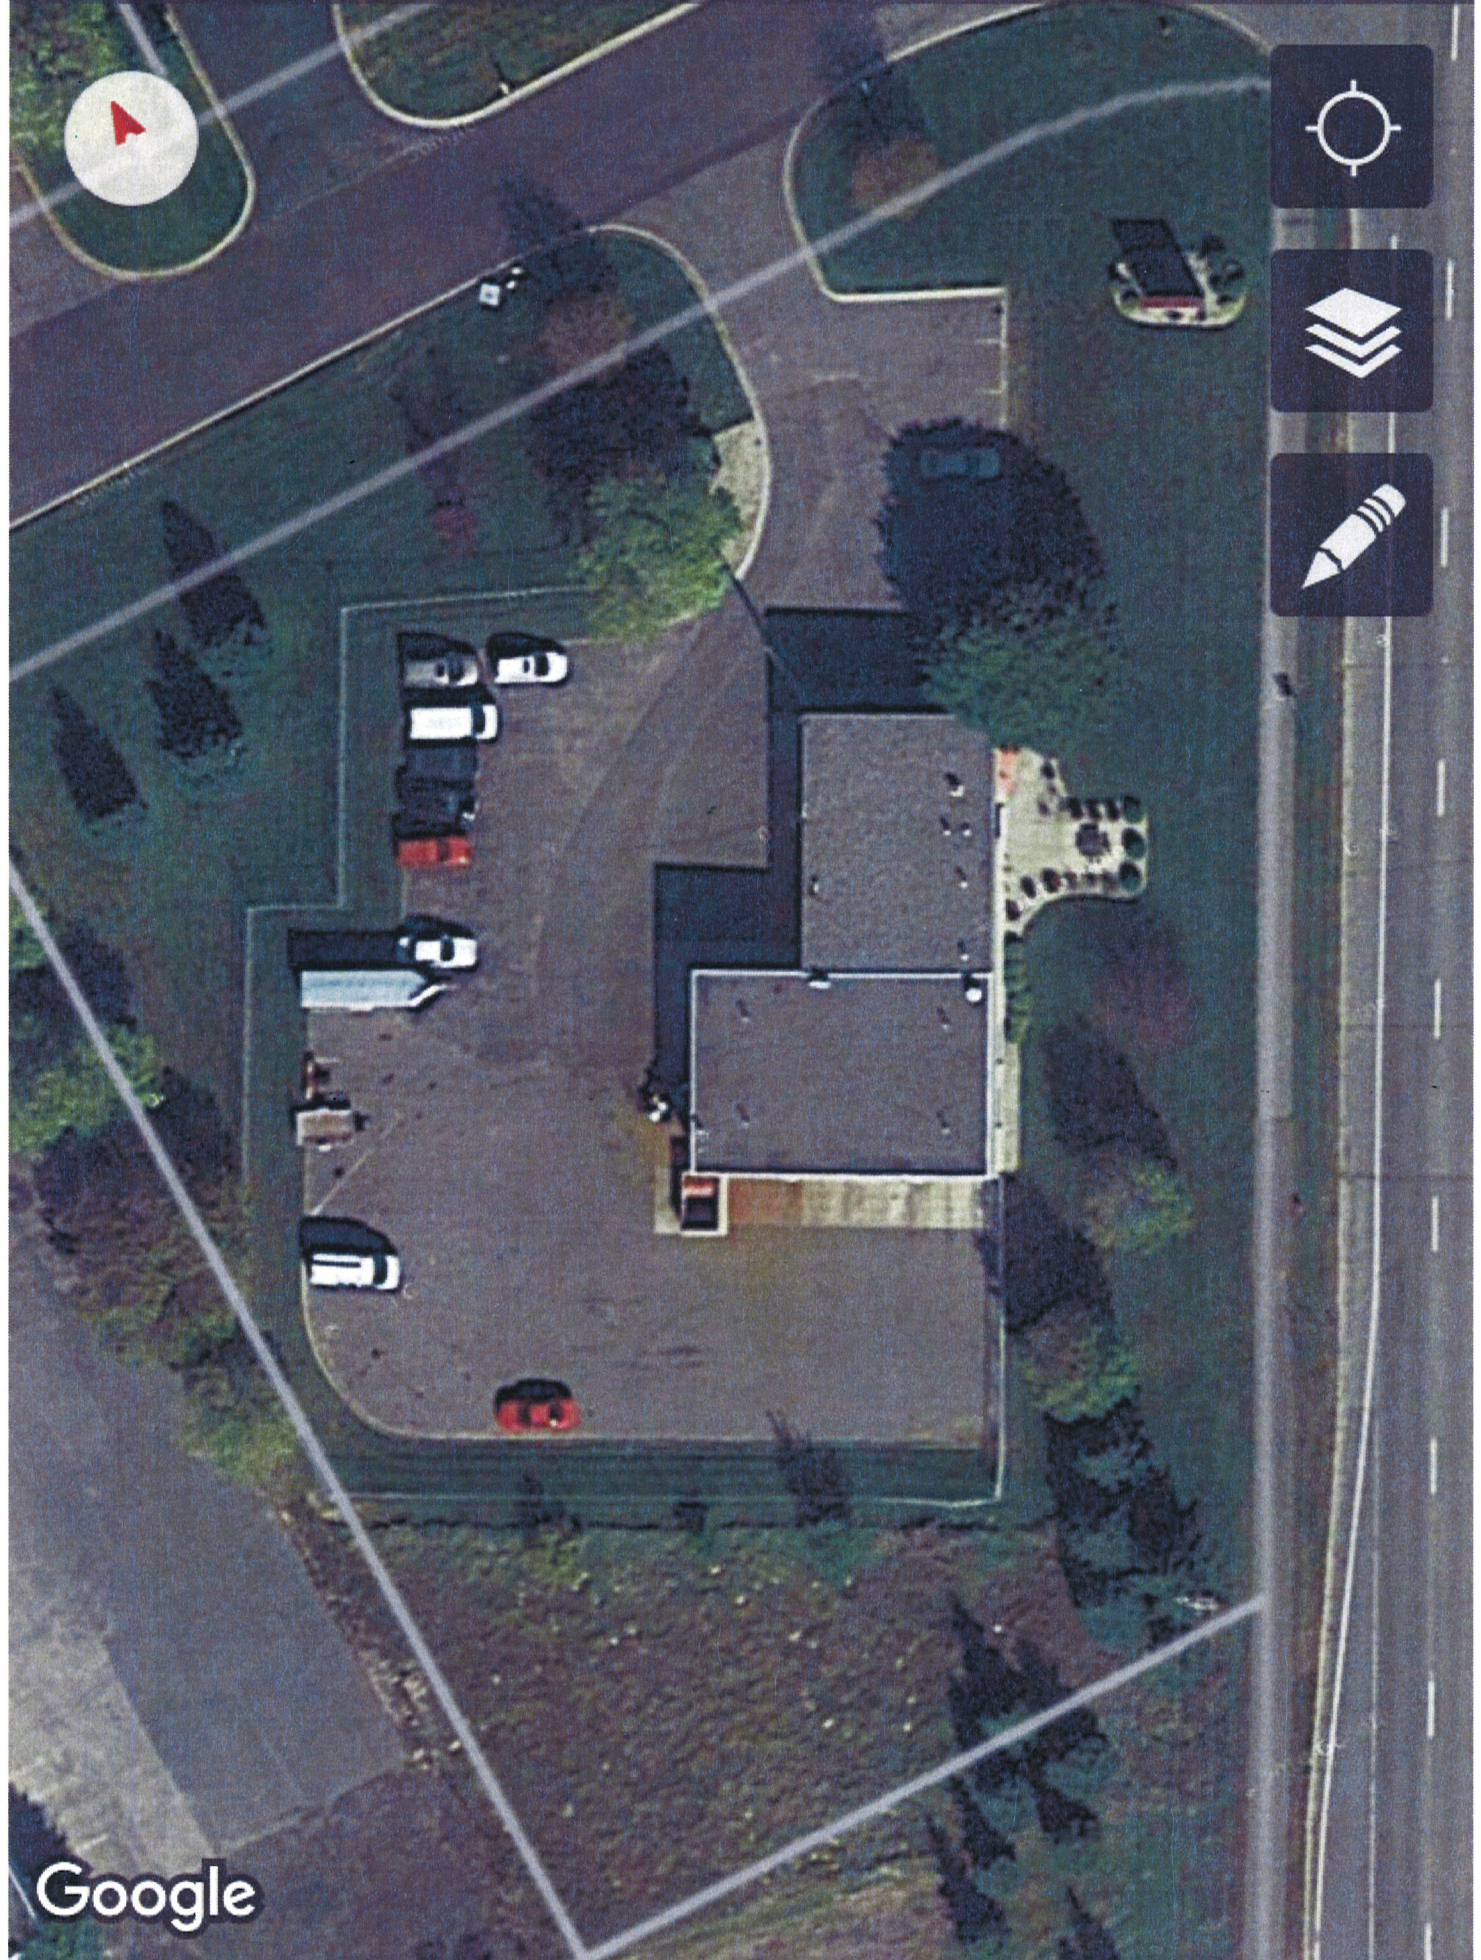

Thank You,

Brain Gross
