Minneapolis

Minneapolis has a full-time, 13-member City Council. It operates with a system of standing committees which normally meet during a two-week period we refer to as a "Council cycle." Each two-week cycle ends with the regular meeting of the full City Council at which time the Council considers and takes action on the recommendations (reports) of its standing committees. You can access the Council calendar from our on-line Legislative Information Management System at—

lims.minneapolismn.gov

There is a calendar menu at the top of the page; the page automatically defaults to include the City Council and its standing committees as well as the City's appointed boards and commissions and other public meetings/events. You can filter those using the tools as you need. For additional reference and clarification, I've attached a PDF of the 2018 Council & Committee Calendar.

St. Paul

St. Paul has seven part time councilmembers. All of their meetings are generally on Wednesdays. Budget Committee, Policy Sessions and Organizational Committee meet at 10 am on Wednesdays when needed. The regular council meetings are every Wednesday at 3:30 with public hearings held on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays at 5:30. The council also sits as the Housing & Redevelopment authority which meets at 2pm on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays and as the Library Board on the 1st Wednesday at 2pm. 4

Even though the council is part time, most are in the office throughout the week for meetings with departments and residents.
