Title

2021 Fourth Quarter Donations

Executive Summary

Council is requested to formally accept donations made in the fourth quarter.

Background

The police department has received donations from members of the community as well as local businesses. The list of donors, amounts, and intended purpose are attached.

The police department would like to recognize a very significant donation from Grace Schrunk in the amount of $15,000, for our K9 program. Grace is a long time resident of Blaine and has had several canines who have touched her deeply throughout her life. Grace will be in attendance to be acknowledged for her donation.
